

Welcome to Classical Sound

We are delighted to announce our third season of concerts, bringing the finest performing artists to play the world's greatest music written for small ensembles.

Come and hear for yourself what is so exciting about chamber music - the intimate spaces, the joy of hearing the best in music, the opportunity to be with people who love music the same way you do!

Thank you for coming, and thank you for any extra support you can give. Ticket sales can never cover the cost of producing our concerts. To keep our ticket prices low, we must rely on donations from the community. Classical Sound is a 501c3 not for profit organization, and your tax-deductible contribution of any size beyond the cost of your tickets will be greatly appreciated.

We look forward to entertaining you!
